

2016-2017 School Touring Sneak Peek

Roseneath Theatre

Touring World-Class Plays to Ontario Schools since 1983

4 Professional In-School Plays
for Grades K-12

Diversity Imagination Mental Health
Indigenous Culture Racism ADHD
Bullying Consent Healthy Relationships

Grades 4-8

The Incredible Speediness of Jamie Cavanaugh

by Chris Craddock

October 11 - December 8, 2016

A story of super powers, bullying and one girl's real life struggle to stay calm and focused in the face of an ADHD diagnosis.

Grades K-4

Birds of a Feather

by Robert Watson

March 20 - May 5, 2017

A junior bird watcher's adventure in Hawaii leads her to discover the Laysan Albatross whose families have similarities to her own.

Grades 4-8

Spirit Horse

Native American adaptation by Drew Hayden Taylor
From the Irish Play 'Tir Na N'Og' by Greg Banks

October 17 - November 26, 2016

When two Indigenous sisters go on a mystical journey with their horse Wildwind, their father must chase them down to save his family.

Grades 9-12

Meet Cute

by Erin Norah Thompson

April 3 - May 19, 2017

Jane and John meet at a bus stop - could there be romance? One meeting shown three different ways to explore the notion of consent.

education@roseneath.ca

416-686-5199 ext. 223

roseneath.ca

Canadian Heritage
Patrimoine canadien

studio lab
theatre foundation

The Catherine and Maxwell
Meighen Foundation

Lead Corporate Donor: Bank of Montreal
Additional Support: TD Bank Group

EARLY BIRD DISCOUNT
Book by June 30 to save $25!

Illustrations by Claudia Davila